MEMO.

Government Notification Nos. 611/C.B.60-20-2 dated 28th October 1920 and 1083/C.B.60-20-5 dated 7th January 1921, sanctioned my promotion to the I Grade of Deputy Commissioners, Acting, during the combined leave of Mr. G. Aravamudu Iyengar, and his employment as Revenue Secretary respectively. Mr. Aravamudu Iyengar's leave expired on the 4th November 1920 and he reported himself to the Government for duty on the 5th idem. He was awaiting the orders of Government for three days, and took charge of the Revenue Secretary's appointment on the 8th November 1920.

The Comptroller has disallowed my higher grade pay for the three days in question, (5th to the 7th) presumably on the ground that Mr. Aravamudu Iyengar's leave terminated on the 5th November and that, till he took charge of the Revenue Secretary's appointment, he should be considered as being a Deputy Commissioner in charge of a District. Now, if that officer had taken up the Revenue Secretary's place immediately on the expiry of his leave, I would have had the benefit of the Ag. promotion without a break. As there was, however, a slight delay of three days in the issue of the orders of Government posting him as Revenue Secretary, I have been deprived of my promotion for those three days, though as a matter of fact Mr. Aravâmudu Iyengar was awaiting orders at the Secretariat and had not taken charge of any District as Deputy Commissioner.

The Comptroller's disallowance results in a break of three days in my Ag. promotion, which has been continuous from July 1919. As this will be a hardship to me, I beg that Government may be graciously pleased to direct that the disallowance may be cancelled in view of the circumstances explained in detail above.

Mr. B. Ramaswamaiya, Revenue Secretary to Government, represents that in consequence of Mr.G.Aravamudu Iyengar having had on return from leave on 5th November 1920 to wait till the 8th idem for orders of Government appointing him temporarily as Revenue Secretary to Government during the former's absence on privilege leave, there has been a break of three days in his acting promotion to the first class of Deputy Commissioners which has been continuous from July 1919 and requests that Government may kindly order the cancellation of the disallowance of the acting allowance made from his salary bill by the Comptroller.

2. The representation is in my opinion reasonable and may be allowed and the Members of Council also agree with me. The Financial Secretary has no objection.

3. I beg that the representation may be graciously sanctioned.
